

GROTON AGRICULTURAL COMMISSION
MINUTES
May 14 2014

Call to order: 6:40 PM

Members present: Susan Colt-Wilcox, Sean O'Neil, John Smigelski, George Moore

Motion by S. O'Neil to waive reading of minutes from last meeting, seconded by Susan Colt-Wilcox, voted unanimously to waive.

Open issues: Report on Blood Farm, progressing slowly, still to re-open this fall.

There is a question whether Jean Nordin-Evans needs to install a fence exterior to her existing electric fence as per request from Cons. Comm. Mass. Farm Bureau says this is not required. Jean will install it anyway.

The raw milk issue is on hold with the Groton B. O. H.

The right to farm signs will be made by Connor Signs and Graphics, West Boylston.

Other Business: None, there will be no meetings in July or August.

Motion to adjourn by S. O'Neil, second by J. Smigelski, voted unanimously, adjourned 7:30 PM

Respectfully submitted, George Moore, Chairman
