Meeting handouts: Agenda

Peter Cunningham called the meeting to order.

Letter of support for the housing coordinator position

Committee members discussed the role of the housing coordinator for the Town. Committee members agreed upon the importance of the position in order to maintain compliance with its affordable housing plan as well as to retain credible influence in how the Town addresses this need.

Michelle Collette moved that the Housing Partnership send a letter to the Community Preservation Committee in support of continued financial support for the housing coordinator position. Carolyn Perkins seconded and the motion passed unanimously (3:0).
